Great Anxiety for Famous Woman Leader MRS. LIVERMORE IS ILL

In Serious Condition at Her Home in Melrose, and Friends Are Alarmed.

Her Physician Says There Is Very Slight Chance for Her Recovery.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, foremost advocate of suffrage for women and temperance worker of national reputation, is confined to her bed at her home on Emerson street, Melrose, owing to her advanced age, 84 years, her physicians believe that she has only the barest possible chance of recovery. Mrs. Livermore was taken ill last week with a cold, which on Sunday developed into an attack of bronchitis and caused her to take to her bed.

She has somewhat recovered from the bronchitis, but the attack affected her heart to such an extent that it has left it extremely weak.

This statement of the noted woman's condition was made by her physician, Dr. Dudley Hyde of Malden, to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter.

"Mrs. Livermore's heart is very weak after her bronchitis attack. She may drop off at any moment. I am in hopes of her passing on to the other side, the only, the barest possible chance she will recover today. My friends and I were told that the patient was holding her own. She is 84 years old. Mrs. Livermore's sister, Adeline, said she was 'comfortable'."

MARY A. LIVERMORE. NOTED WOMAN WHO IS ILL.

Friends Very Anxious.

There have been many inquiries from her friends and those who have been associated with her in suffrage and temperance work since it was known that Mrs. Livermore was ill.

Mrs. Mary Ashton Livermore has for many years been one of the most prominent women in America and an author and lecturer. She was born in London, December 13, 1820, and was educated by her mother, Mrs. John Livermore, and the Christian Female Seminary. After her education from the institution she taught school for some years, and in 1843 was married to the late Dr. J. A. Livermore, a Unitarian minister, who died July 1, 1865.

Mrs. Livermore was active in the abolition and the Washington temperance societies, and was one of the first members of the United States Sanitary Commission during the Civil War. She was the first president of the Illinois Women's Suffrage Association, which she organized in 1857, where her husband became editor and she associate editor of a Unitarian paper.

World Famous Lecturer.

For ten years Mrs. Livermore was president of the Massachusetts Women's Christian Temperance Union and is now president of the Massachusetts Women's Suffrage Association, and member of many societies. She has delivered lectures all over the United States and in 1890 was elected to the National Council of the Woman's Suffrage Association. She has written many books dating from 1841 to 1897.

HOCH'S CASE GOES TO JURY

Lawyer for Alleged Bluebeard Officially Hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," as Plea.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The case of James Hoch, the alleged bluebeard, was tried for the poisoning of his wife, Mrs. Marie Valerie Hoch, whose body was found just after her death, goes to the jury today. Attorney Leonard P. Hoek, who filed his appeal some time ago, was admitted to the case for an acquittal.

"I ask you to take with you to the jury room the plea of 'Lead, Kindly Light,' which you have heard me read, and which you have seen in the paper. I ask you to take with you to the jury room the plea of 'Lead, Kindly Light,' which you have heard me read, and which you have seen in the paper. I ask you to take with you to the jury room the plea of 'Lead, Kindly Light,' which you have heard me read, and which you have seen in the paper."

Mr. Hoek then read two verses of a certain hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," which was printed in the Chicago Tribune, and which was the plea of the defendant. The hymn was as follows:

"Lead, kindly light, amid the encircling gloom, Lead me to Jesus, by some path that I have known. Lead me to Jesus, by some path that I have known, Lead me to Jesus, by some path that I have known."

The case was then closed and the jury was sent out to deliberate.

BOYS MEET GOVERNOR.

Members of the graduating class of the Jefferson School of Botany met Governor Douglas and shook hands with him at the State House. They were the guests of the governor, who was accompanied by his family. The boys were dressed in their school uniforms and were accompanied by their teachers.

NINETY-CENT GAS WILL BE SIGNED

Governor Douglas Puts Signature to Measure Which Insures Reduction in Price to Boston, and the American's Long Fight Is Finally Successful---How the Victory Was Achieved.

Governor Douglas at 11:16 to-day signed the anti-gas grab bill. This victory for the BOSTON AMERICAN, backed by officials and citizens, compels the Gas Trust, in the event of consolidation, to limit their capital to $15,124,600 and to reduce the price of gas to ninety cents within a year.

MAINE ALIENISTS REPORT BELIEF GRACE DARBY NOT INSANE

Examined the Girl for Almost an Hour and a Half Before Giving Decision.

Drs. Woodcock and Sanger of Bangor Say They Would Not Commit Her to Asylum.

By J. Frank Davis.

The BOSTON AMERICAN prints to-day the first of a series of articles by Grace Evelyn Hathorne Darby, the beautiful girl who recently escaped from the Taunton Insane Asylum, dealing with her life from her earliest remembrance to the present time.

In the course of this series Miss Darby will tell of her experiences in various Massachusetts State institutions, giving in detail the routine of her daily life, events that have marked her career as a charge of the State, scenes to which she has been an eye-witness, and incidents which have caused comments, both favorable and unfavorable, among inmates and attendants.

Particular attention will be paid to the Taunton Insane Asylum, where this unfortunate girl spent six long years as an insane patient, although a physician who examined her prior to her commitment pronounced her sane. Serious charges have been made by citizens of Taunton and by attendants and former attendants of the institution against its management. The true facts will be presented by Miss Darby and will be presented exclusively in the BOSTON AMERICAN.

This autobiography is prepared chronologically by Miss Darby for the BOSTON AMERICAN, and containing as it does intimate observation of public institutions and their management, constitutes one of the most interesting series that has ever appeared in a Boston newspaper. The first installment follows:

ZION'S HERALD EDITOR CALLED UNCHRISTIAN

Rev. George A. Cooke Prefers
Charges Against Rev.
Charles Parkhurst.

"FALSIFIED IN HIS PAPER"

Charges of unchristian conduct have been filed against the Rev. Charles Parkhurst, D. D., editor of Zion's Herald, who is regarded as the organ of the Methodist Episcopal church in this section of the country by the Rev. George A. Cooke, secretary of the Bible League of the church. The charges have been made in the Rev. Charles P. Rice, presiding elder of the Cambridge district of the New England conference.

Rev. Mr. Cooke had charge of the proceedings of the conference of the New England conference, which was held in New York on the charge of heresy. A verdict for the accused professor was found.

In his charge of the Rev. Mr. Cooke said: "First, he (the Parkhurst) has repeatedly asserted false and malicious statements in Zion's Herald."

Threatened Rev. Mr. Cooke. "Second, he has made threats in personal conversation, and in Zion's Herald, to intimidate the members of the conference, and to prevent the free expression of opinion on matters of importance to the church."

In the course of his statements Mr. Cooke said: "On about October 12, 1905, he (the Parkhurst) threatened me with personal violence, and threatened to publish in the editorial columns of Zion's Herald in Boston, his virulent and malicious personal attacks upon me and upon the conference of the New England conference."

In another statement Mr. Cooke refers to an editorial that appeared in the Parkhurst's paper, which, he says, "branded me as a criminal and threatened me with personal violence, and threatened to publish in the editorial columns of Zion's Herald, his virulent and malicious personal attacks upon me and upon the conference of the New England conference."

Dr. Parkhurst answered. "Rev. Mr. Parkhurst said that the fact of the charges was news to him."

"I am not a student of the fact of the charges was news to him. I do not consider it of sufficient importance to publish in the editorial columns of Zion's Herald, his virulent and malicious personal attacks upon me and upon the conference of the New England conference."

Wood Gets a Sentence of 30 Years
Pleaded Guilty of Murder in Second Degree on Discovery of "Imp Doubles."

Special to the Boston American. BOSTON, May 18.—George H. Wood, on trial before Justice Garret, on a jury for the murder of George Williams, a Washington grocer, who was shot and killed February 2, 1905, was sentenced to thirty years imprisonment.

Wood, a native of New York, was arrested on a charge of murder in the second degree, and was found guilty of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to thirty years imprisonment.

Immediately after court opened today there was a long conference between the opposing lawyers, and Judge Garret, in the course of which the question of a plea of guilty to the charge of murder in the second degree was discussed.

Wood, who had been found guilty of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to thirty years imprisonment, was found guilty of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to thirty years imprisonment.

The Mayor's chair."

Talk does have effect on unthinking or wavering people. All signs are far as indication that the Chicago strike is "over" Mayor Thompson's administration.

The quick demand on the Governor for Federal troops, the controlling of $50,000 bank funds, the refusal to arbitrate any more strikes, more than enough to ruin a troupe.

Reports that the BOSTON AMERICAN news continue to make these plans and not only public news as fast as possible. They are not yet out toward what is but a power when he can work in the streets. The strike is over. The strike is over public settlement.
